

Major Insect Orders of British Columbia

Which orders can you find outside?

<input type="checkbox"/>  Springtails Collembola*	<input type="checkbox"/>  Jumping bristletails Archaeognatha	<input type="checkbox"/>  Silverfish Zygentoma	<input type="checkbox"/>  Earwigs Dermaptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  Mayflies Ephemeroptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  Dragonflies and damselflies Odonata
<input type="checkbox"/>  Rock crawlers Notoptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  Termites Isoptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  Mantises Mantodea	<input type="checkbox"/>  True bugs Hemiptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  Cockroaches Blattodea
<input type="checkbox"/>  Stoneflies Plecoptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  Bark lice and true lice Psocoptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  Bees, ants, wasps, and hornails Hymenoptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  Thrips Thysanoptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  True flies Diptera
<input type="checkbox"/>  Net-winged insects Neuroptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  Alderflies and dobsonflies Megaloptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  Beetles Coleoptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  Crickets, katydids, and grasshoppers Orthoptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  True flies Diptera
<input type="checkbox"/>  Scorpionflies Mecoptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  Fleas Siphonaptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  Twisted-winged parasites Strepsiptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  Caddisflies Trichoptera	<input type="checkbox"/>  Butterflies and moths Lepidoptera

- Raphidioptera (snakeflies) are not pictured but have been found in BC.
- Embioptera (webspinners), Phasmatodea (stick & leaf insects), and Zoraptera (ground lice) are not currently found in BC.
- *Collembola (springtails) are in Class Entognatha and are no longer considered insects.